About Jenny and Dave MARRS

Jenny and Dave MARRS have been restoring and renovating historic homes since 2004. Now as the stars of HGTV's "Fixer to Fabulous," they showcase their work in their beautiful hometown and surrounding area of Bentonville, Arkansas, to millions of viewers while staying true to their renovation philosophy: a home should reflect the personality of the ones who live there. Perfection is never the goal. Beautiful spaces are often imperfect and full of character. To date, the MARRS' have worked on over 300 homes.

In addition to "Fixer to Fabulous," Jenny and Dave own and operate Berry Farm, a working blueberry farm that funds a trade training program for orphaned and abandoned teens in Zimbabwe, and they recently opened the MARRS Mercantile, where they sell home goods by their favorite makers and artists.

Jenny's first book House + Home = Love: Creating Warm Intentional Spaces for a Beautiful Life releases November 2023. The book will provide readers with renovation tips as well as a glimpse into the MARRS' 1903 restored farmhouse where they live with their five children. They are also gearing up for the "Fixer to Fabulous" spinoff series, "Fixer to Fabulous: Italiano," which will show Jenny and Dave traveling overseas to renovate a crumbling centuries-old Italian villa.

What Makes Jenny and Dave MARRS Special?

- Jenny and Dave never set out to star on HGTV. When producers first approached them, Jenny thought the email was spam and deleted it. But destiny had its way. The show is now in its fifth season with millions of viewers. This year, Jenny and Dave also co-starred on HGTV's "Home Town Takeover" with Ben and Erin Napier, "Rock the Block" season 3 and starred in the "Fixer to Fabulous: Welcome Inn" special, which was one of the top 3 shows across all Discovery networks.
- Jenny's debut book House + Love = Home is a welcoming guide for anyone interested in transforming their house into a home that is warm, inviting and full of love. The book features photos, personal essays and tips on how to intentionally renovate the twelve different spaces in a home that Jenny and Dave most commonly work on.
- The parents of five children, the MARRS' put family and faith first. Their values drive everything they do, including starting their blueberry farm, The Berry Farm, where all farm proceeds benefit their agricultural training program that provides educational and skills opportunities for orphaned and at-risk teenage boys in rural Zimbabwe.
- Fixer to Fabulous is headed to Italy! Jenny and Dave took to renovating a centuries-old villa in Greve in Chianti, Italy. The 6-episode miniseries is set to air in Spring 2024.
- Jenny and Dave are passionate about where they come from and stick with local projects in their corner of Northwest Arkansas. They hang an American flag on every home they work on to commemorate their loved ones who've served.
