About Leslie

Leslie Lehr is a lifestyle expert, organizational specialist, and go-to girlfriend for the modern day superwoman. Leslie is the founder and owner of Leslie Lehr Living, a company dedicated to helping the everyday, busy woman find beauty in order, live simply with a pop of personality, and create systems that decrease clutter and allow for sustainability. Leslie uses her expertise and passion for style, organization, and hospitality to help her clients live more with less. With the belief that you should not have to compromise function, style, or budget to achieve beautiful results, Leslie teaches her clients to implement simple systems that help them stay organized, curate a polished style with flair, and invest in a few quality and versatile pieces to avoid over-purchasing. Leslie is currently based in Phoenix, Arizona, where she frequently contributes her lifestyle, organization, and entertaining expertise to top-tier local media outlets.

What Makes Leslie Special?

- Leslie's style pays homage to the places she has lived: the east and west coasts and the southwest U.S. Throughout her career, Leslie has curated a unique style that blends contemporary design elements with a dash of charm and tradition that is equally sophisticated as it is playful.
- As a self-taught organization expert with an eye for design, Leslie isn't a store-bought solution provider. Instead of piling a room with plastic containers, Leslie provides unexpected, unique solutions to ordinary spaces that banish clutter while incorporating beautiful personalized design.
- Whether it's a closet redux or a pantry overhaul, Leslie imparts her sustainability systems to help her clients reclaim their time, space, and peace of mind. Leslie believes that mixing design and organization has the power to transform a space, reduce stress, and create a sense of pride, peace, joy, and comfort.
- Leslie teaches her clients how to intentionally select the items in their home. A believer that a few quality items are better than many low-quality knick knacks, Leslie helps her clients reduce clutter by getting rid of what they do not use, while teaching them ways to use the quality pieces they already have in a fresh and stylish way.
